Marie Schneider Residency

Marie Schneider came to the BOW Colleges on March 7-10, 2017 for a residency comprised of workshops and master classes at Wellesley College; an Arts & Business Conversation at Babson College; and a capstone concert at Babson's Sorenson Center with her orchestra. This residency was supported in part by a BOW Innovation Grant.

Knotty Problems in Research

BOW Faculty and Staff had the opportunity to attend three faculty led events to discuss teaching and research and obtain feedback from their fellow colleagues.

Design For America

BOW students, in partnership with Design for America and Sustainable Wellesley, studied the number of students who drove alone to school in the Wellesley Public School District.

Tech Gen Start Up

The BOW Colleges joined forces to connect Boston area Tech Start-Up companies with business, engineering, and liberal arts talent. More than 100 students attended this event.

Bandaloop

Bandaloop, a unique "vertical dance" company will be in residence at Wellesley College in October 2017. This week long residency, which culminates with six performances and live music played by Music Department faculty, will occur on the sides of the newly opened Arts Addition.

Rock Climbing Organization

The BOW Rock Climbing Organization hosted several events throughout the academic year to bring students interested in rock climbing together and strengthen the connection between the colleges.

21st Birthday Social

The BOW 21st Birthday Semi-Formal Social will take place during Fall of 2017. The event will focus on celebrating together this milestone birthday and provide information about safe alcohol consumption both personally and professionally.

Grant Writing Workshop

The Grant Writing Workshop took place during the summer of 2017 for Faculty and Center Directors at BOW Colleges. The discussion focused on skills and framework necessary to apply for external grants.

Constructing and Performing The Self

As part of the Curricular Fellows Grant, cross-listed course Constructing and Performing the Self was offered during the spring 2017 semester. The course taught by Jonathan Adler, Olin College of Engineering and Beth Wynstra, Babson College culminated with live performances by students.

Constructing and Performing The Self

Curricular Fellows Grant

The goal of this program is to cultivate creative and collaborative teaching across Babson, Olin and Wellesley Colleges, and to generate innovative new courses and teaching formats. Faculty who participate in this program are known as BOW Curricular Innovation Fellows.

Faculty Grant Writing Workshop

On June 16, 2017 faculty and staff from all three colleges took part in a Grant Writing Workshop funded by an Innovation Grant.

This workshop led by Pattie McNulty, a research administration veteran with 25+ years of experience, provided an overview of grant writing essentials.

This included:

- Finding funding opportunities
- Determination of project resource needs
- Overview of the core components of a proposal

Faculty and Staff Social

BOW held three Faculty and Staff Socials during the 2016-2017 year .

Two took place at The Local in Wellesley and our first Summer Social was held at Roger's Pub at Babson College. It was a wonderful way for members of all three college communities to enjoy social time and create connections.
