

BOW

Three College Collaboration

FEBRUARY 2020
DIGEST

BOW UPDATES
UPCOMING EVENTS
EXCITING OPPORTUNITIES

BOW UPDATES:

BOW Curricular Innovation Fellow Program

Curricular Innovation Fellow applications are available now and due on March 11th. The goals of this program are to cultivate creative and collaborative teaching across Babson, Olin and Wellesley Colleges with the ultimate goal of generating innovative new courses and teaching formats across the three institutions. Faculty who participate in this program will receive a stipend.

BOW Student Programming Fund

The purpose of the BOW Student Programming Fund is to enhance collaboration and socialization between students on the Babson, Olin, and Wellesley campuses through student-initiated programming, activities, and experiences. Requests up to $500 will be considered. Requests will be reviewed on a rolling basis and must be submitted online at least 2 weeks prior to the program date. Student organizations applying for funds are encouraged to collaborate with other registered student organizations, administrative offices, or academic departments.

UPCOMING EVENTS

American Factory: Film Screening and Q&Q with David Lindauer and Mingwei Song

Sunday, March 1, 7:00 PM, Collins Cinema, Wellesley College

Join Wellesley professors David Lindauer (Economics) and Mingwei Song (East Asian Languages and Cultures) for a panel discussion following the screening of American Factory, winner of the 2020 Academy Award for Best Documentary.

International Women's Day

Thursday, March 5, 5:30-7:30 PM, Alumnae Ballroom, Wellesley College

You are cordially invited to attend a reception and panel in celebrating International Women's Day at Wellesley College! The guest speaker, Hauwa Ibrahim and Wellesley Student Panelists will share their lived experiences as international women and speak upon the themes of empowerment, inclusivity & community, and how to a difference in this world. Dinner will be provided. Please RSVP here.

Food + Entrepreneurship

Monday, March 9, 3-4 pm, Norden Auditorium, Olin College

Join the Olin College Products and Markets class for a panel discussion with the founders of four food-related entrepreneurial ventures. The speakers include Ruby Chan from Freshzen Foods, Andris Lagsdin from Baking Steel, Ayr Muir from Clover Food Lab, and Poorvi Patodia from Biena Snacks.

Stammtisch

Wednesday, March 11, 5:00 PM, Bottom Line Lounge (Babson Executive Education Center)

ATTENTION GERMAN-SPEAKERS! Come to our next Stammtisch, meet new people and have fun practicing your German (no matter how rusty it may be!). We are getting together regularly throughout the semester at different venues. No strings attached – the only “rule” is that everyone speaks (or attempts to speak) German. Questions? Email Brigitte Mühlmann (bmuehlmann@babson.edu) or Katrin Fischer (kfischer1@babson.edu)

Listening Session on Babson Prison Education Initiative

Tuesday, March 31, 5:00 PM, Lewis Institute Conference Room, Babson College (Food will be served.)

Please join Professor Elizabeth Swanson for a listening session to gauge interest and ideas regarding a formal Prison Education Initiative at Babson, or as part of the Babson, Olin, Wellesley Consortium.

Background: Babson has been supporting entrepreneurial education for incarcerated women at South Middlesex Correctional Center in Framingham for 10+ years. In the current climate of urgent criminal justice and prison reform, the time is right to join the growing number of MA colleges and universities that offer formal prison education programming. This session will provide time to discuss possible locations, models, curricula, and certifications for such education. All are welcome! If you are not able to attend but are interested in learning more about the program, please contact Elizabeth at eswanson@babson.edu.

BOW Three-College Throwdown

Wednesday, April 8, 5:00 PM, Olin Dining Hall, Olin College

Do you think your school has the best head chef? Come to this event to find out! BOW is having a cooking throwdown between the head chefs of Babson, Olin, and Wellesley on April 8, 2020 at 5:00 PM in Olin Dining Hall. The chefs will be making their very best street food in hopes of becoming the BOW Three-College Throwdown Champion! Presidents Johnson, Miller, and Spinelli and YOU will have the opportunity to taste and decide which chef will take home the Three-College Throwdown Trophy.

EXCITING OPPORTUNITIES

Management Consulting Field Experience Program

The undergraduate Management Consulting Field Experience \(MCFE\) Program provides an opportunity for students to implement business practices learned in the classroom to challenging, real-world consulting projects for a client company or non-profit organization. MCFE projects involve teams of four to six students who examine and make recommendations for actual companies and organizations. Students receive academic credit equivalent to one course (4 credits). Applications are due on March 22nd.

Foundry Prototyping-Equipment Training

Ever wanted to use a 3D printer or vinyl cutter? The Foundry is offering trainings on 15 pieces of prototyping-equipment each week. Please register for a training session here to begin using the equipment.

Stephen D. Cutler Center for Investments and Finance (Babson College) Turns 20!

This year the Stephen D. Cutler Center for Investments and Finance will celebrate its 20th anniversary. We invite you to engage with the Cutler Center throughout the year. For a list of upcoming programs and events please refer to the following communication: <https://conta.cc/3ay0s1P>

Have a program or opportunity you would like included in the next BOW Digest? Please email your brief, one paragraph submission to jengle@olin.edu by Monday, March 23rd.